(hereinafter referred to as "the Contracting Parties"),

DESIRING to strengthen their economic cooperation by creating favourable conditions for investments by investors of one Contracting Party in the territory of the other Contracting Party,

HAVE agreed as follows :

ARTICLE 1

Definitions

For the purpose of this Agreement,

1. The term "investors" shall mean :
 - a) the "nationals", i.e. any natural person who, according to the legislation of the Kingdom of Belgium, of the Grand-Duchy of Luxemburg or of the United Arab Emirates, is considered as a citizen of the Kingdom of Belgium, of the Grand-Duchy of Luxemburg or of the United Arab Emirates respectively ;
 - b) the "companies", i.e. any legal person constituted in accordance with the legislation of the Kingdom of Belgium, of the Grand-Duchy of Luxemburg or of the United Arab Emirates and having its registered office or place of management in the territory of the Kingdom of Belgium, of the Grand-Duchy of Luxemburg or of the United Arab Emirates respectively ;
 - c) The federal government and local governments of the Contracting States and their financial institutions.
2. The term "investments" shall mean any kind of assets that is owned or controlled, directly or indirectly, by an investor of a Contracting Party in the other Contracting Party.

The following shall more particularly, though not exclusively, be considered as investments for the purpose of this Agreement :

- a) movable and immovable property as well as any other rights in rem, such as mortgages, liens, pledges, usufruct and similar rights ;
- b) shares, corporate rights and any other kind of shareholdings, including minority or indirect ones, in companies constituted in the territory of one Contracting Party ;
- c) bonds, claims to money and to any performance having an economic value ;
- d) copyrights, industrial property rights, technical processes, trade names and goodwill ;
- e) concessions granted under public law or under contract, including concessions to explore, develop, extract or exploit natural resources. Such concessions shall be governed pursuant to the terms and conditions of contracts agreed upon between the investor and the Contracting States in whose territory such concessions are made.

Changes in the legal form in which assets and capital have been invested or reinvested shall not affect their designation as "investments" for the purpose of this Agreement, provided that such changes are pursuant to the existing laws and regulations of the Contracting States in whose territory the investments are made.

3. The term "returns" shall mean the proceeds of an investment and shall include in particular, though not exclusively, profits, interests, capital increases, dividends, royalties and fees.

4. The term "territory" shall apply to :

- a) the territory of the Kingdom of Belgium and to the territory of the Grand-Duchy of Luxemburg, as well as to the maritime areas, i.e. the marine and underwater areas which extend beyond the territorial waters of the Kingdom of Belgium upon which it exercises, in accordance with international law, its sovereign rights and its jurisdiction for the purpose of exploring, exploiting and preserving natural resources ;
- b) The United Arab Emirates respectively, as well as those maritime areas, including the seabed and the subsoil adjacent to the outer limit of the territorial sea of either of the above territories over which the State concerned exercises in accordance with the international law, its sovereign rights and its jurisdiction for the purpose of exploration and exploitation of natural resources of such areas.

5. The terms "environmental legislation" shall mean any legislation of the Contracting States, or provision thereof, the primary purpose of which is the protection of the environment, or the prevention of a danger to human, animal, or plant life or health.
6. The terms "labour legislation" shall mean legislation of the Kingdom of Belgium, of the Grand-Duchy of Luxembourg or of the United Arab Emirates, or provisions thereof, that are directly related to the international Labour Conventions that each Contracting Party has ratified.

ARTICLE 2

Promotion of investments

1. Each Contracting Party shall promote investments in its territory by investors of the other Contracting Party and shall accept such investments in accordance with its legislation.
2. Each Contracting Party shall authorise, as far as possible, pursuant to its existing laws and regulations, the conclusion and the fulfilment of license contracts and commercial, administrative or technical assistance agreements, as far as these activities are in connection with such investments.

ARTICLE 3

Protection of investments

1. All investments made by investors of one Contracting Party shall enjoy a fair and equitable treatment in the territory of the other Contracting Party.
2. Except for measures required to maintain public order, such investments shall enjoy continuous protection and security, i.e. excluding any unjustified or discriminatory measure which could hinder, either in law or in practice, the management, maintenance, use, possession or liquidation thereof.

ARTICLE 4

National treatment and most favoured Nation

1. In all matters relating to the treatment of investments, the investors of each Contracting Party shall enjoy national treatment and most-favoured-nation treatment in the territory of the other Contracting Party. The most favourable nation treatment shall not be applied to matters related to procedural or juridical matters.
2. With respect to the operation, management, maintenance, use, enjoyment and sale or other disposal of investments, each Contracting Party shall accord, on its territory, to investors of the other Contracting Party, treatment no less favourable than that granted to its own investors or to investors of any other State if the latter is more favourable.
3. This treatment shall not include the privileges granted by one Contracting Party to investors of a third State by virtue of its participation or association in a free trade zone, customs union, common market or any other form of regional economic organisation.
4. The provisions of this article do not apply to tax matters or ownership of land and real estates.

ARTICLE 5

Environment

1. Recognising the right of each Contracting Party to establish its own levels of domestic environmental protection and environmental development policies and priorities, and to adopt or modify accordingly its environmental legislation, each Contracting Party shall strive to ensure that its legislation provide for high levels of environmental protection and shall strive to continue to improve this legislation.
2. No Contracting Party shall change or relax its domestic environmental legislation to encourage investment, or investment maintenance or the expansion of the investment that shall be made in its territory.
3. The Contracting Parties recognise that co-operation between them provides enhanced opportunities to improve environmental protection standards. Upon request by either Contracting Party, the other Contracting Party shall accept to hold expert consultations on any matter falling under the purpose of this Article.

ARTICLE 6

Labour

1. Recognising the right of each Contracting Party to establish its own domestic labour standards, and to adopt or modify accordingly its labour legislation ;
2. Shall no Contracting Party change or relax its domestic labour legislation to encourage investment, or investment maintenance or the expansion of the investment that shall be made in its territory.

ARTICLE 7

Deprivation and limitation of ownership

1. Each Contracting Party undertakes not to adopt any measure of expropriation or nationalisation or any other measure having the effect of directly or indirectly dispossessing the investors of the other Contracting Party of their investments in its territory.
2. If reasons of public purpose, security or national interest require a derogation from the provisions of paragraph 1, the following conditions shall be complied with :
 - a) the measures shall be taken under due process of law ;
 - b) the measures shall be neither discriminatory, nor contrary to any specific commitments ;
 - c) the measures shall be accompanied by provisions for the payment of an adequate and effective compensation.
3. Such compensation shall be computed on the basis of the market value of the investment immediately prior to the point of time when the decision for expropriation or nationalization was announced or became public known, where the market value cannot be readily ascertained, the compensation shall be determined in accordance with generally recognized principles of valuation and on equitable principles taking into account, inter alia, the capital invested, depreciation, capital already repatriated, replacement value and other relevant factors. The compensation shall include interest at the current rate of interest applicable to the currency in which the investment was originally undertaken from the date of expropriation until the date of payment.
4. Investors of one Contracting Party whose investments suffer losses owing to war or other armed conflict, revolution, a state of national emergency or revolt in the territory of the other Contracting Party shall be granted by the latter Contracting Party a treatment, as regards restitution, indemnification, compensation or other settlement, at least equal to that which the latter Contracting Party grants to the investors of the most favoured nation.

ARTICLE 8

Transfers

1. Each Contracting Party shall grant to investors of the other Contracting Party the free transfer of all payments relating to an investment, including more particularly :
 - a) amounts necessary for establishing, maintaining or expanding the investment ;
 - b) amounts necessary for payments under a contract, including amounts necessary for repayment of loans, royalties and other payments resulting from licences, franchises, concessions and other similar rights, as well as salaries of expatriate personnel ;
 - c) proceeds from investments ;
 - d) proceeds from the total or partial liquidation of investments, including capital gains or increases in the invested capital ;
 - e) compensation paid pursuant to Article 7.

2. The nationals of each Contracting Party who have been authorised to work in the territory of the other Contracting Party in connection with an investment shall also be permitted to transfer an appropriate portion of their earnings to their country of origin.
3. Transfers shall be made in a freely convertible currency at the rate applicable on the day transfers are made to spot transactions in the currency used.
4. Each Contracting Party shall issue the authorisations required to ensure that the transfers can be made without undue delay, with no other expenses than the usual banking costs.

ARTICLE 9

Subrogation

1. If one Contracting Party or any public institution of this Party pays compensation to its own investors pursuant to a guarantee providing coverage for an investment, the other Contracting Party shall recognise that the former Contracting Party or the public institution concerned is subrogated into the rights of the investors.
2. As far as the transferred rights are concerned, the other Contracting Party shall be entitled to invoke against the insurer who is subrogated into the rights of the indemnified investors the obligations of the latter under law or contract.

ARTICLE 10

Applicable regulations

If an issue relating to investments, other than hydrocarbons, is covered both by this Agreement and by the national legislation of one Contracting Party or by international conventions, existing or to be subscribed to by the Parties in the future, the investors of the other Contracting Party shall be entitled to avail themselves of the provisions that are the most favourable to them.

ARTICLE 11

Specific Agreements

1. Investments made pursuant to a specific agreement concluded between one Contracting Party and investors of the other Party shall be covered by the provisions of this Agreement and by those of the specific agreement.
2. Each Contracting Party undertakes to ensure at all times that the commitments it has entered into vis-à-vis investors of the other Contracting Party shall be observed and investors should on the other hand respect and comply with the terms and conditions of their commitments.

ARTICLE 12

Settlement of investment disputes

1. Any investment dispute between an investor of one Contracting Party and the other Contracting Party shall be notified in writing by the first party to take action. The notification shall be accompanied by a sufficiently detailed memorandum.

As far as possible, the Parties shall endeavour to settle the dispute amicably through negotiations, if necessary by seeking expert advice from a third party, or by conciliation between the Contracting Parties through diplomatic channels, by way of an ad hoc joint commission.

2. In the absence of an amicable settlement by direct agreement between the parties to the dispute or by conciliation through diplomatic channels within six months from the notification, the dispute shall be submitted to the competent jurisdiction of the State where the investment was made.

If the dispute is not settled after 15 months from the date of the submission to the competent jurisdiction including local arbitration centers, the investor shall be entitled to submit the dispute to international arbitration.

If the dispute is not settled after 6 months from the date of the submission to the competent jurisdiction both parties may submit, by mutual written consent, the dispute to international arbitration.

3. In case of international arbitration, the dispute shall be submitted for settlement by arbitration to one of the hereinafter mentioned organisations, at the option of the investor

- an ad hoc arbitral tribunal set up according to the arbitration rules laid down by the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law (U.N.C.I.T.R.A.L.);
- the International Centre for the Settlement of Investment Disputes (I.C.S.I.D.), set up by the Convention on the Settlement of Investment Disputes between States and Nationals of other States, opened for signature at Washington on March 18, 1965, when each State party to this Agreement has become a party to the said Convention. As long as this requirement is not met, each Contracting Party agrees that the dispute shall be submitted to arbitration pursuant to the Rules of the Additional Facility of the I.C.S.I.D. ;
- the Arbitral Court of the International Chamber of Commerce in Paris ;
- the Arbitration Institute of the Chamber of Commerce in Stockholm.

If the arbitration procedure has been introduced upon the initiative of a Contracting Party, this Party shall request the investor involved in writing to designate the arbitration organisation to which the dispute shall be referred.

4. The Contracting Party which is a party to the dispute shall not raise as an objection at any stage of the proceedings or enforcement of an award the fact that the investor which is the other party to the dispute has received in pursuance of an insurance contract an indemnity in respect of some or all of his or its losses.

5. The arbitral awards shall be final and binding on the parties to the dispute. Each Contracting Party undertakes to execute the awards in accordance with its national legislation.
6. At any stage of the proceedings, all Parties to the dispute can decide by mutual agreement to withdraw the case from arbitration.

ARTICLE 13

Disputes between the Contracting Parties relating to the interpretation or application of this Agreement

1. Any dispute relating to the interpretation or application of this Agreement shall be settled as far as possible through diplomatic channels.
2. In the absence of a settlement through diplomatic channels, the dispute shall be submitted to a joint commission consisting of representatives of the two Parties ; this commission shall convene without undue delay at the request of the first party to take action.
3. If the joint commission cannot settle the dispute, the latter shall be submitted, at the request of either Contracting Party, to an arbitration court set up as follows for each individual case :

Each Contracting Party shall appoint one arbitrator within a period of two months from the date on which either Contracting Party has informed the other Party of its intention to submit the dispute to arbitration. Within a period of two months following their appointment, these two arbitrators shall appoint by mutual agreement a national of a third State as chairman of the arbitration court.

If these time limits have not been complied with, either Contracting Party shall request the President of the International Court of Justice to make the necessary appointment(s).

If the President of the International Court of Justice is a national of either Contracting Party or of a State with which one of the Contracting Parties has no diplomatic relations or if, for any other reason, he cannot exercise this function, the Vice-President of the International Court of Justice shall be requested to make the appointment(s).

4. At any stage of the proceedings, the Contracting Parties can decide by mutual agreement to withdraw the case from arbitration.
5. The court thus constituted shall determine its own rules of procedure. Its decisions shall be taken by a majority of the votes ; they shall be final and binding on the Contracting Parties.
6. Each Contracting Party shall bear the costs resulting from the appointment of its arbitrator. The expenses in connection with the appointment of the third arbitrator and the administrative costs of the court shall be borne equally by the Contracting Parties.

ARTICLE 14

Previous investments

This Agreement shall also apply to investments made before its entry into force by investors of one Contracting Party in the territory of the other Contracting Party in accordance with the latter's laws and regulations.

This Agreement shall not apply to any dispute arising prior to the entry into force of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 15

Consultation

At any stage after the entry into force of this Agreement, the Contracting Parties can hold consultation at the request of either Contracting Party to the amendment of the Agreement, and to discuss issues related to subrogation and investment disputes notwithstanding the provision of the Article 9 and Article 12 respectively.

ARTICLE 16

Entry into force and duration

1. This Agreement shall enter into force one month after the date of exchange of the instruments of ratification by the Contracting Parties. The Agreement shall remain in force for a period of ten years.

Unless notice of termination is given by either Contracting Party at least six months before the expiry of its period of validity, this Agreement shall be tacitly extended each time for a further period of ten years, it being understood that each Contracting Party reserves the right to terminate the Agreement by notification given at least six months before the date of expiry of the current period of validity.

2. Investments made prior to the date of termination of this Agreement shall be covered by this Agreement for a period of ten years from the date of termination.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned representatives, duly authorised thereto by their respective Governments, have signed this Agreement.

DONE at Dubai, on the 8 day of March 2004, in two original copies, each in the French, Dutch, Arab and English languages, all texts being equally authentic. The text in the English language shall prevail in case of difference of interpretation.
